SAC Responsibilities

• Arrange the agenda for all Senate meetings
• Staff and provide charges to standing committees
• Establish ad hoc committees for special studies
• Provide a regular channel for consultation and communication between the faculty and administration
• Meet at least once each year with the Academic Affairs Committee of the Board of Trustees
• At each Senate meeting, present a report briefing the Senate on its activities
SAC Report, September 26, 2018

• Since the last Senate meeting, SAC has met 11 times, with 2 meetings including Provost Bean.
• Our focus has been on designing charges for the Senate’s standing committees and staffing those committees.
• Additional focus, in consultation with Provost Bean, has been implementation of the new workload policy and revision of the Faculty Handbook Compensation module.
Midterm Faculty Senate Elections

COS election in progress

- Associate Dean appointment for Mark Patterson
- 1st election in which all fulltime faculty in a college are eligible for election
- 1st online election
- Participation so robust, with 6 nominees, that a run-off ballot may be needed

BCHS (1 Senator) and CAMD (2 Senators) elections to be held at college meetings later this fall

- To replace Senators who will be on sabbatical in Spring ’19: Jack Dennerlein, Ed Andrews and Tony De Ritis
Updates to Faculty Handbook and Faculty Senate websites are in place.
Maintaining Academic Standards
The key to genuine shared governance is broad and unending communication in order to achieve common goals.
