

New England Future Faculty Workshop

July 30, 2020

The logo for Northeastern University, featuring the name in white serif font on a red background.

This virtual, full-day conference is for postdoctoral fellows and advanced graduate students interested in faculty careers in STEM.

Apply by June 1st, 2020

<https://faculty.northeastern.edu/advance/faculty-recruitment/future-faculty-workshop/>

Accepted applicants will be notified by June 15, 2020 & directed to a registration site where they will pay a fee of $50 by June 26, 2020 to confirm their participation. Registration fee waivers are available if requested.

Northeastern University is committed to cultivating talent and promoting the full inclusion of excellence. This workshop is designed to serve those who are members of groups whose representation in STEM education or employment is smaller than their representation in the U.S. population. For example, this includes women, racial and ethnic minorities, persons with disabilities, first-generation students, members of the LGBTQ+ community, and those who support the efforts for a more diverse workforce.

Topics include:

- Finding your institutional fit
- Making your CV stand out
- Perfecting your interviewing skills
- Crafting research, teaching and diversity statements
- Negotiating the job offer
- Creating a quick-start plan
- Honing time management skills

Sponsored by:

UMassAmherst

Graduate School

Organized by Northeastern University and the University of Massachusetts Amherst.

