Future Faculty Fellowship

SUBMIT YOUR APPLICATION TODAY!

Northeastern University and the ADVANCE Office of Faculty Development invite applications from candidates in all academic disciplines. This opportunity is for postdoctoral scholars whose representation in faculty positions is smaller than their representation in the U.S. population. This includes women, racial and ethnic minorities, persons with disabilities, first-generation students, and members of the LGBTQ+ community.

DEADLINE: MONDAY, JANUARY 31, 2022

What We Offer

• Appointment for a 12-month term during the 2022-2023 academic year
• Salary of $60,000, plus comprehensive benefits package
• $5,000 towards conference travel and other research-related expenses
• Preparation for possible tenure-track appointments at Northeastern

PROGRAM DATES: JULY 1, 2022 - JUNE 30, 2023

Qualifications

A prospective fellow must:

• Have completed their Ph.D. no later than the start of their fellowship term and no earlier than four years before the start of the fellowship term
• Be a citizen or permanent resident of the United States
• Not be a currently employed Northeastern University postdoctoral scholar or Ph.D. student
