Message from the Dean

The Library has always been there for the Northeastern community, making resources, services, and spaces available for learning and research, and being responsive to what is happening in the world. While the coronavirus may be novel, today is no different. Our staff is ready to help out wherever you are, and we have expanded our collections and programs to address not only the challenge of Covid-19, but the unjust inequities that continue to plague our society.

How do I record a Podcast remotely?

Being socially distant doesn't mean that you can't record a great podcast with other people. This webinar will explain some tips and tricks for making your remote podcast sound like you are all in the same room. This will be presented by Digital Media and Audio Production Specialist Jon Reed. Slides for the presentation are available here.
